

LEAVE THEIR PARTY TO HELP SILVER MEN

REPUBLICAN SENATORS VOTE FOR WHITE METAL.

Decisive Vote Against Taking Up the Revenue Bill For Consideration—House Passes Indian Appropriation Bill—The Treasury Reserve—General Washington News.

Washington, Feb. 26.—After the senate had disposed of much routine business on Tuesday Mr. Morrill, chairman of the finance committee, offered a distinct surprise in the form of a resolution to take up the tariff bill. He said it had been apparent for many months that there was a deficiency in the revenues. During every month since the present tariff bill went into effect there has been a deficiency.

"How was it before?" interjected Mr. Cockrell.

Mr. Morrill went on to state that the deficiency up to this time reached $20,000,000. If we went on at the same rate the deficiency would be $30,000,000 for the year. It was certainly manifest that congress should do something to relieve the treasury and assist in the revival of business. Therefore, concluded the senator, he moved that the senate proceed to the consideration of the tariff bill. The roll-call proceeded with many interruptions in order to allow senators to pair. The announcement that Mr. Morrill's motion had been defeated—yeas 22, nays 23—was not unexpected in view of the vote some days ago. The defeated vote was as follows:

Nays—Republicans: Cannon, Carter, Dubois, Mantle and Teller—5. Democrats: Bacon, Bate, Berry, Caffery, Call, Chilton, Cockrell, George, Gordon, Gray, Harris, Hill, Lindsay, Martini, Morgan, Palmer, Pasco, Roach, Turpie, Vest, Walthall, White—22. Populists: Allen, Butler, Jones (Nev.), Kyle, Peffer and Stewart—6.

The pairs were as follows, the names of those who would have voted yeas being given first: Chandler with Murphy, McBride with Smith, Hoar with Pugh, Warren with Jones (Ark.), Wilson with Irby, McMillan with Blackburn, Pritchard with Blanchard, Wetmore with Voorhees, Pettigrew with Gibson, Frye with Gorman, Squire with Daniel, Wolcott with Brice, Platt with Vilas, Elkins with Faulkner, Sewell with Mitchell (Wis.), Thurston with Tillman.

As soon as the vote was announced Mr. Morrill again addressed the senate. It was now evident he said, that the republican party was in the minority in the United States senate. Mr. Morrill proceeded to state that in his judgment the tariff bill was defeated by a vote including five silver republicans and six populists. There was no substantial change in the present and former votes. It settled all questions of doubt. The senator said the republican members of the finance committee would be ready at any time before congress adjourned to come to the relief of the treasury. "But as to this bill," concluded Mr. Morrill, "I do not think it would become me to ask any further time."

Mr. Teller secured recognition as soon as Mr. Morrill concluded. He said: "Mr. President, I charge here (and I shall undertake to make the charge good before this debate is over) that this bill was never introduced in either body, nor has it been supported in this body, with any reference to its becoming a law. It was not intended that it should become a law. Of that I shall speak at another time. It was known when this bill was introduced in the house of representatives that it could not pass the senate unless it had democratic or populist support. It was said publicly that it was not expected to pass; it was said publicly that it was for the purpose of political gain and political advantage."

"At the proper time I am prepared to show that the great metropolitan republican press has declared that eighteen members of this body are not worthy to be called republicans, and we have been notified that unless we change our views upon financial questions, and submit to the Cleveland democracy and Morrill republicanism of this country on the financial question, we must go out of the party."

"Mr. President, we shall stay in the party until we get ready to go out, and we shall discuss these questions that are so important, not from a partisan standpoint, but from the standpoint of an American senator charged with great interests, charged with doing that which the senate has shown itself incompetent to do—charged to devise some system that shall satisfy the people that we can enter upon that degree of prosperity to which we are entitled by reason of advantages which exist in this country."

Mr. Sherman (O.) followed Mr. Teller and said: "Mr. President, as a member of the committee on finance I disclaim all partisan feeling in respect to that bill which the senator from Vermont moves to bring before the senate. That bill does not belong to any party. The only merit in the bill is that it proposes to furnish $40,000,000 of revenue for the support of the government, enough to meet the current expenses of the government. It is a bill prepared for an occasion, not a political one. I say now, Mr. President, I shall vote for any tax whatever which may be proposed by anybody, whether democrat, populist or republican, which shall supply sufficient revenue for the support of the government.

"It is a disgrace to our civilization—it is a disgrace to the country itself that we are now expending $30,000,000 a year more than the receipts of the government, and that congress now in session, with both houses fully armed with power to furnish the revenue, is idle and refuses to act."

Mr. Harris—"Why does not the senator from Ohio advise the treasury department to coin the $55,000,000 of seigniorage and the balance of the silver that lies in the treasury idle and utilize it to answer the purposes of the treasury?"

Mr. Sherman—"That has been tried and tested, and if ever that question met its final solution it was in the house of representatives elected by the people, where, by a majority of almost two to one, the judgment of the house—the representatives of the people from equal and exact districts throughout the country—pronounced their denunciation of the most foolish and dangerous policy of departing from the now lawful standards of money in the country."

Mr. Allen asked Mr. Aldrich if the republican party would accept a tariff bill with a free-coinage attachment.

Mr. Aldrich replied that he would not and added that he desired to have it understood that he made the statement with as much emphasis as he was capable of.

"Are there," asked Mr. Allen, "any circumstances under which the republican party would accept free coinage?" To this Mr. Aldrich replied that there were none except under an international agreement.

Mr. Platt contended that the bimetalism of those who stood with the senator from Nebraska was silver monometallism. The republican party, he said, is going into the next campaign on the same declaration that it made in the last, on gold, silver and the currency generally.

Mr. Fry spoke briefly, saying that it must be seen by all that the tariff bill was as dead as Julius Caesar, and that there was no resurrection for it. The business men of the country ought to know this.

It was 2:10, the hour for taking up the Cuban resolution, when Mr. Morgan was recognized to proceed with his speech on this question. The senator closed at 3:30 p. m. and was followed by Mr. Gray (dem., Del.). He urged that the recognition of belligerency was not within the powers of congress. The president had the sole power in this direction.

Messrs. Lodge, Stewart and Call also spoke briefly. At 5 o'clock the resolutions were laid aside, and after Mr. Squire had submitted the report of the committee on coast defenses, the senate held a brief executive session, and at 5:05 p. m. adjourned until today.

The Gold Reserve. Washington, Feb. 26.—Tuesday's treasury statements showed the gold reserve to be $123,522,378. Of this amount $91,685,705 represents the aggregate in gold paid for in bonds to date. The amount of bonds issued, however, is only $70,650,050, of which $43,412,650 are in coupons and $27,237,400 in registered, the balance being held on call from the purchasers. The total amount of the deferred gold payments, therefore, is only about $20,000,000. Since Jan. 6 last, the date of Secretary Carlisle's bond circular, the total withdrawals of gold from the treasury amount to $32,413,396, of which $22,989,263, or about 25 per cent of the whole gold receipts, was not exported, but was used, it is assumed, in the payment of bonds.

Censure for Mr. Bayard. Washington, Feb. 26.—Chairman Hitt of the foreign affairs committee on Tuesday reported to the house the preamble and resolutions agreed on by the foreign affairs committee censuring Ambassador Bayard for portions of speeches he delivered at Edinburgh and Boston. Accompanying the preamble and resolutions is a brief report which sets forth that Mr. Bayard did make the speeches containing the features alleged to be objectionable, and saying that no action had been taken by the government thereon.

Indian Appropriation Bill Passed. Washington, Feb. 26.—The house Tuesday promptly passed the Indian appropriation bill as amended. No one demanded a separate vote in the house on the Linton sectarian school amendment as agreed to in committee of the whole. The house also passed the bill authorizing the secretary of the treasury to take and kill all the seals while on their feeding grounds on the Pribilof islands, in case the modus vivendi could not be concluded.

Offer to Furnish Charts. Washington, Feb. 26.—The Venezuelan boundary commission has received through Mr. Tehane a letter inclosing one from Sir Clement Markham, president of the British Geographical society, offering to furnish the American commission with all the charts and information in its possession touching the location of the true boundary between Venezuela and British Guiana.

Finance Committee Tied. Washington, Feb. 26.—The greater part of the time of the meeting of the senate committee on finance Tuesday was devoted to the consideration of Senator Bacon's bill to prohibit the further issuance of government bonds

DR. JAMESON GIVEN A GREAT OVATION

TRANSVAAL INVADER IS LONDON'S IDOL NOW.

The Crowd Waits All Day For the Arrival of The Distinguished Prisoner—The Judge Dwells On The Gravity of the Offense With Which He Is Charged.

London, Feb. 26.—It was probably not without design that the appearance of Dr. Jameson for arraignment in the Bow street police court was delayed all through the day. There was a disposition pervading the London masses to give "Dr. Jim" an ovation. The British authorities desire, as far as possible, to give no appearance of encouraging such a demonstration of approval of a citizen who has been handed over to them by a power against which he sought to wage war, in the faith that Great Britain will see justice done to him and will probably avenge the outrage done to a friendly power.

But the British government is well aware that though Dr. Jameson is brought to England for trial as a criminal, he is, in the popular eye, a hero, and his raid into the Transvaal, far from being viewed as a political enterprise, is looked upon as a chivalrous and knightly adventure to succor hard-pressed friends and fellow-countrymen. It was quite late in the day before Dr. Jameson was landed. He was brought on a tug to Firth on the Thames and was then conducted by a further roundabout and obscure route to the Bow street police court. As a consequence it was almost 6:30 o'clock in the evening when he was finally driven up to the entrance of the court and brought in. The authorities thus hoped to evade any very noisy demonstration on the part of the waiting crowds outside, as they were scarcely aware that the prisoner was among them before he had disappeared into the court-room.

But his entrance to the court-room was the signal for a remarkable scene. Evidently every one present was of one mind in sympathizing with him. All were his friends, and all rose and uncovered upon his appearance, giving him hearty cheers. It was in vain that the court officers sought to quell the demonstration. The charge lodged against Dr. Jameson and fourteen of his fellow-prisoners was declared to be "warring against a friendly state."

After the charge had been read Mr. Henry Matthews, Q. C., who was home secretary in the former Salisbury government, announced that in view of the importance of the case the law officers of the crown would conduct the prosecution. Formal evidence was then presented as to the circumstances of the arrest. The lawyers who were in court on behalf of the accused men asked that their personal recognizances be accepted for bail.

Sir John Bridge, from his place on the bench, said that before deciding upon the bail he felt that he ought to observe that in his opinion a graver offense could not be charged against men than that charged against the prisoners. It was a crime of the highest possible gravity, the magistrate continued, and it must be so treated by every one when they consider that the commission of such an offense might create a war between countries previously friendly. The circumstances of the present case, he added, were most peculiar. He felt satisfied that the prisoners would appear when wanted. He therefore accepted their personal recognizances, and fixed their bail at £2,000 ($10,000) each.

Sir John Bridge then addressed the prisoners personally in a grave and serious vein. He begged them for their own sakes and for the sake of the good faith of the country to refrain from appearing where public excitement would be roused by their presence, or in any way lending themselves to the disturbance of the peace.

Dr. Jameson's appearance outside the building was the signal for a wild outburst of cheering, throwing of hats in the air and a tremendous pressure to get within reach of the popular idol. When he finally reached his cab he was hurriedly driven off without waiting to make any sign of acknowledgment of the ovation.

It appears from the later accounts which have been received that the identity of Dr. Jameson was not concealed successfully on the route from the landing to the Bow street police court. In fact, when his boat appeared in the river, and wherever Dr. Jameson was seen on the route to Bow street, the populace greeted him with vociferous cheers.

Maj. Heany, the American who was arrested and embarked at Port Natal with Dr. Jameson and the other prisoners, but who disembarked at a way port, upon arriving in London was mistaken by the crowd for Dr. Jameson, and in consequence was greeted with loud cheers.

Rebuff to the French Ministry. Paris, Feb. 26.—The budget committee of the chamber of deputies just appointed contains twenty-nine members out of a total of thirty-three who are hostile to the government's proposed income tax. This is regarded as a grave and unprecedented rebuff to the ministry.

BANKS REPEL RAIDS BY BOLD BANDITS

TUESDAY WAS A BAD DAY FOR ROBBERS.

Wichita Falls, Texas, and Warren, Arkansas, the Scenes of Battle Between Cashiers and Bandits—Robbers Likely to Be Lynched if Caught.

Wichita Falls, Tex., Feb. 26.—Two robbers entered the City National Bank of this city at 2:45 p. m. Tuesday and demanded the money of Cashier Dorsey, who resisted them. Shooting began, and resulted in the death of Cashier Frank Dorsey and the wounding of Bookkeeper P. P. Langford. Langford's wounds are not serious, being slight flesh wounds. The robbers secured only a few hundred dollars in silver. They then mounted their horses and made a run for their lives. By this time many of the citizens had armed themselves, and a small battle took place. One of the robbers' horses was shot from under him, and it is believed the robber was wounded. He mounted behind his partner, and about one mile from town met a farmer in a buggy. They took his horse and made a break for the hills. In the meantime the citizens had secured horses and at last reports they were within a quarter of a mile of the robbers, with good prospects of overtaking them. Captain McDonald and his rangers came in on the 4 o'clock train, and took the trail at once. Word is expected every moment that the robbers are captured. It is believed a hanging bee will take place if they are caught. A reward of $1,000 is offered by the Panhandle and City National Banks for their capture, dead or alive.

CASHIER MORTALLY WOUNDED.

Bank Officials at Warren, Ark., Successfully Resist Robbers.

Warren, Ark., Feb. 26.—A daring but unsuccessful attempt was made to rob the Merchants' and Planters' Bank of this place Tuesday. At 3:30 o'clock three men entered the bank and two of them went behind the inclosure where Mr. Adair, the cashier, was seated in conversation with T. M. Goodwin and D. W. Sutton. The robbers called out: "Hold up your hands." Mr. Adair sprang for his pistol and the bandits commenced shooting. Mr. Goodwin received what is thought to be a mortal wound and Mr. Adair was shot through the shoulder. He returned the fire, and evidently wounded one of the men, as when the robbers rode off one was seen to be bleeding.

The firing startled the citizens, who came running from all directions, and the robbers were forced to retire empty-handed. As they rode off they kept up a fusillade of shots, and went out northwest of town. The plans were well laid, and no doubt the bank would have been plundered but for the promptness of Mr. Adair with his revolver. In order to make their escape more effective, it is thought the robbers had a confederate to tamper with the telegraph wires, and thus cut off telegraphic communication. Several citizens had narrow escapes from the flying bullets, and the interior of the bank is perforated with bullet holes. A full description of the men has been telegraphed to all accessible points, and a strong armed force is in close pursuit of them.

Cuban Filibusters Released.

New York, Feb. 26.—Commissioner Shields has ordered the release of all the men arrested in connection with the Bermuda alleged filibustering expedition with the exception of Gen. Garcia, Capt. Hughes and two other leaders. The prisoners were released because their arrest was in violation of the instructions sent out from Washington last week by Attorney-General Harmon, that suspicion merely was not sufficient ground for arrest, but that evidence of intention to violate the neutrality laws was required.

Explosion Kills Two Hundred.

London, Feb. 26.—A dispatch to the Times from Shanghai says that the Anhui troops at Kiangyin, ninety-five miles from Shanghai, have mutinied. One captain has been killed by the troops and the general has been made prisoner and is awaiting death. The foreign instructors of the troops are safe, and are being protected by the Hunan troops.

War Among Glass-Workers.

Pittsburg, Pa., Feb. 26.—The expulsion of President Simon Burns of Sreator, Ill., from the Windowglass-Workers' association continues to cause excitement among members of the organization. Live sessions were held in the afternoon and evening, but the press committee were not disposed to give out the full details. During the day the members freely congratulated each other over the defeat of the sectarian appropriation bill in congress. The president read his annual report. He spoke at length of the growth of the order and the class of members it was desired to secure. The secretary also presented his annual report, and the convention adjourned until the evening, when the election of officers took place. There is a bitter fight over the presidency—Springfield, Chicago, Morris and Peoria having candidates.

Miss Flagler Goes to Jail.

Washington, Feb. 26.—Miss Elizabeth Flagler, daughter of Gen. Flagler, chief of ordnance, U. S. A., who last spring shot and killed a colored boy named Green, son of a treasury department messenger, was arraigned in court Tuesday. She pleaded guilty to involuntary manslaughter and was sentenced to three hours in jail and to pay a fine of $500. Gen. Flagler paid the fine and the young lady was conducted to jail to serve the three hours. Miss Flagler was driven to the jail in her father's carriage and was received by the warden with great courtesy. She passed the three hours in the matron's reception room in the company of Gen. Flagler and an aunt, Mrs. Winthrop, and was then driven to her home.

Rock Island Bridge Tumbles.

Davenport, Iowa, Feb. 26.—With a crash that could be heard for blocks, a 180-foot section of the government bridge dropped into the Mississippi river Tuesday, carrying with it the derricks and other appliances that were used in the reconstruction that was in progress, and involving in the wreck the cables of the Western Union and Postal Telegraph companies, the Central Union Telephone company, People's Light company, and Tri-City Railway company. One workman was injured, Bert Kustard, a Swede, having both legs broken.

For Resubmission in Iowa.

Des Moines, Feb. 26.—The house committee on constitutional amendments on Tuesday took unexpected action by recommending the passage of the prohibitory amendment to the constitution. Only seven of the thirteen members of the committee, all republicans, were present, and the resolution was favorably reported by a vote of 5 to 2. A minority report will probably be presented against the amendment resolution, which fixes the third Tuesday in June, 1897, as the day for the special election to decide the question.

Detroit, Feb. 26.—The democratic state central committee met here Tuesday and chose Detroit as the place for holding the convention, and named April 29 as the date. Iowa State Legislature.

Des Moines, Iowa, Feb. 26.—The age-of-consent bill will probably be called up in the senate to-day for final discussion and vote. Yesterday the senate passed the bill by Killburn giving school districts the authority to vote to furnish free text-books to all pupils. On motion of Senator Carpenter the Carney primary-election bill, defeated by the senate last week, was called up, the vote reconsidered and the bill re-committed for amendment and modification, after which the opinion is general that it will pass.

The appropriations committees have commenced their work in earnest. Unless an enormous amount of additional revenue is provided the bills so far introduced will have to be scaled down an average of 50 per cent. The appropriations asked for amount to about $1,800,000. The only safe thing the appropriations committees can figure on at present is about $850,000 for extraordinary appropriations. This is on the basis of a 2½-mill levy.

Woolley of New York, who will insist that the convention shall make a platform declaring for prohibition and nothing else, is here, and John P. St. John of Kansas, who will advocate the broad-gauge plan, will arrive to-day. This afternoon the convention elects delegates to the national convention and will nominate presidential electors. The state ticket will be nominated Thursday.

Coast Defense Bill Amended.

Will Wood's Trial Postponed.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Feb. 26.—The case of William Wood was called yesterday in the police court. His father, the Rev. F. M. Wood, was present. There was no disposition on the part of the state to hurry a trial and the defense was willing to grant all the time required by the prosecution to perfect its case, so that almost by consent the case was postponed until April 15 and the bail was reduced from $5,000 to $3,000.

ALL THE FARMERS TO BE AT THE FAIR

BIG CROWD TO COME TO JANESVILLE.

Noted Men Will Speak and There Will Be Pleasure and Profit For All—Railroads Lend a Helping Hand and Will Advertise the Show Themselves.

LL the farmers in Rock county will be in Janesville on March 3 and 4 and unless all signs fail, the biggest crowd of tillers of the soil that the Bower City has ever seen, will attend the institute and cooking school paid for by the state, and the midwinter fair gotten up and paid for wholly by the citizens of Janesville. Bower City people are going to entertain their fellow citizens from the country and entertain them royally.

Very few, comparatively, of the farmers of Rock county have ever seen the big handsome court room in which the meeting will be held. Only when they have been drawn for jury duty have the majority of farmers entered it, and as for the farmer's wife, only a handful of them, so to speak, have ever been inside the building. Therefore all the people of the county should come and inspect their court house—they own it, for it belongs to the people. The court room, although perhaps you didn't know it, is the largest in the state, and has never been thrown open before for meetings where the ladies could attend. They can divide their time between the cooking school and the institute to excellent advantage.

Noted Men To Speak.

And the farmers and their wives and families can hear the voices of some noted men too. Charles Kendall Adams, the famous president of the State University will speak Tuesday evening, as will also Prof. Henry, dean of the Agricultural College, of the same institution. An orchestra of fifteen pieces will furnish the instrumental music and plans are being made for fine vocal music as well. This is all exclusive of the institute proper and the cooking school and midwinter fair will be equally profitable. The farmer and his family can come in the morning with their exhibits; the head of the family can hear the papers that interest him; the good wife can get "pointers" from the cooking school; perhaps enough prizes can be taken at the fair to make the day profitable financially; and the whole family can go home feeling that they have had an outing that was worth their time and trouble from every point of view.

Railroads Give Rates.

And those who do not come by team can get cheap rates on the railroads. The Chicago & Northwestern makes a general reduction of rates on all lines running into Janesville, and all that the road can do to make the fair a success will be done.

Hearty co-operations from the Milwaukee and St. Paul road is also assured. Agent Hinrich has been working hard to boom the fair, and today he suggested to President McKee of the institute committee that the road might get out an attractive display card to hang upon each station on the lines running to Janesville. President McKee furnished details at once, and a telegram was sent in to the agent informing him of the attractions to be sent here March 3d and 4th. Names of the principal speakers were given and other objects of interest. An answer was received from the president that the cards would be printed and displayed without delay.

Visitors Own The Town

Every home in the city will be thrown open to visitors who come in from the country. Citizens are enthusiastic over the opportunity to bring before the people a good showing of Rock county's resources, and are willing to do their best to make things go off swimmingly.

"I have sent out word to twenty of my friends throughout the county to come in and make my house their headquarters through the two days," said a business man. "I do not expect that they will all accept, but I want to be sure that enough of them do so that the place will be full to overflowing from the garret to the cellar. I am willing to sleep in the bath tub myself for a couple of nights just to help the good work along."

The hospitable business man's plan seems to have been approved by everybody who heard it. All Janesville will keep open house during the fair.

JANESVILLE PEOPLE HUSTLERS

Clinton Herald Speaks of the Coming Institute and Fair.

"When it comes to laboring for Janesville its citizens are by no means of means what you would term 'slow,'" says The Clinton Herald. "Their latest project is to hold there on March 3 and 4, a Farm Institute and Winter Fair and the business men have taken right hold of the matter and offer $700 in premiums for almost everything. Clinton should be largely represented and gobble a large proportion of the prizes. For the first time in the history of the world Janesvillians are barred from competing for the rewards. The program will be one of the very best that can be produced, but no provision has been made for the country editors to secure any booty, excepting the honor of helping to boom it, gratuitously."

ST. PATRICK'S DAY TO BE CELEBRATED

GREAT PLANS ARE MADE FOR MARCH 17.

Senator Blackstock Will Speak and All the Irish Societies in Rock County Will Take Part—Banquet For Five Hundred People in The Evening.

The biggest celebration of St. Patrick's day that the city of Janesville has ever seen will take place this year.

Preparations are being made for the day and the participants in the celebration include all the Irish societies in Rock county whereas before only those in the city of Janesville have taken part. The city of Beloit will send a delegation of two hundred with their own band and Senator Blackstock, of Sheboygan, has been engaged as one of the principal speakers.

On Thursday evening a number of delegates from the local societies will attend a meeting in Beloit which will be of a business nature, to arrange as to the program to be given in the evening.

For the evening exercises the Armory has been rented. A banquet will be served, and plates will be laid for five hundred people. The catering will be in charge of Cornelius McDonald. Smith's full orchestra will play, and the leading speakers of the city and state have been invited to deliver addresses. The slugging of both national and Irish songs will be one of the features of the occasion, and judging from the plans that are now being mapped out Janesville will have one of the gayest and largest St. Patrick's day celebrations that the Badger state has ever seen.

MURDER CASE IS AT AN END.

J. H. Fellermann Is Acquitted Before Judge Bennett at Jefferson.

The jury in the case of John H. Fellermann, on trial in the circuit court at Jefferson before Judge Bennett since last Thursday, returned a verdict of not guilty, yesterday afternoon. Fellermann was charged with having fatally shot John McGrath, a stranger, on the morning of June 9 last. McGrath was found pounding vigorously on the door of a neighbor of Fellermann, and Fellermann being summoned to assist in inducing the stranger to leave, fired three shots from his revolver. McGrath was hit in the head, and died in a few hours. At the time the affair occurred, Mr. Fellermann was a member of the mercantile firm of Fellermann & Fischer.

Former Janesville School Man Delighted with the New Janesville Building.

Professor W. D. Parker, of River Falls Normal School, formerly superintendent of the Janesville schools, has been east on a three weeks' furlough, and on his return paid a visit to the Janesville high school. He found nothing in the east, he said, superior to the Janesville school in point of completeness or scientific equipment. In point of heating and ventilating, he found this building a model. "It is a fine building from top to bottom," he said; and went away highly delighted with the equipment that his old home had provided for intelligent high school work.

GNOMES AND FAIRIES MEET IN BATTLE

FINE PRODUCTION OF THE "MYSTIC MIDGETS."

Performance Will Be Repeated Again This Evening at the Y. M. C. A. Building—Big Crowd at a Masquerade—All Souls Banquet Tonight—Social Events.

Gnomes and fairies met in bloodless conflict at the Y. M. C. building last night and to tuneful airs they waged their warfare. Then the Mystic Midgets broke upon the scene, scattered the gnomes, and a joyous wedding followed. This was the simple little plot upon which a charming cantata was based and local talent interpreted it most successfully under the auspices of the Thoughtful Circle of Kings' Daughters. Miss Maud Nowlan played an accompaniment, and all the little folks did well. Margery Wilder, Grace Valentine and Gardner Clark were especially mentioned, but all acquitted themselves with credit. The production will be repeated tonight and they should have a full house. The synopsis and cast of characters is as follows:

PART I.

The Cantata opens on the Isle of Flowers. The Queen organizes the Court and informs her subjects that "Uglio," the ogre, together with the "Gnomes" are bent upon inhabiting the island and are determined to take up residence in "Coral Cave." As the fairies are entirely unable to cope with the enemy unaided, the question of who will aid them is answered by the arrival of a carrier dove, bearing a message from the "Mystic Midgets," who are making a tour of the world, and propose landing on the island. The Lilliputian Carnival of Nations—Arrival of the Mystic Midgets—Preparation for Festival—Each Nation responds in dialect—Meeting of Fairies and Midgets—Presentation of Golden Chest and Magic Wand, sent to Fairies by Media, which carries power of gaining any desire—The Prince forgets to deliver the Key—The Midgets hear of the Enemy and agree to rid the island of them—Uglio steals the Chest and Wand.

PART II.

The Coral Cave, Uglio in Possession—Interrupted by the arrival of the Mystic Midgets retire for Council of War—Arrival of Queen and Court—The Queen drops her key, which informs Midgets who they are—Kidnapping of the Prince by Uglio and the Gnomes—Locked in the Secret Panel with the Golden Chest—The Queen uses Key—The Escape—The Magic Wand is found and power tested—Uglio and the Gnomes turned into Donkeys, Bears, etc., and made to amuse the assembled hosts—The Queen gives her hand in Marriage to the Prince by uniting the Mystic Midgets and the Fairies.

PROFESSIONAL ALMS-GIVERS.

There has been too much professional charity about the country. That may be why some of the widely recognized agencies are suffering from lack of support. The Waifs Mission of Chicago, may be taken as a type. Superintendent Daniels has been pronounced a hypocrite frequently, but with that wonderful gift which seems to belong to the professional charity-fakir he has been able to hypnotize the excellent gentlemen and ladies who from time to time have acted as directors of the institution, and no amount of exposure has been sufficient to remove him from the place he has simply been using for his own purposes. There is reason to believe, as one of the Chicago weeklies declares, that the organized charities idea has been fostered and fathered and mothered in Chicago as in most of the other big cities by an organized pack of charity-fakirs, who ought to be serving time for swindling the rich and plundering the poor. Godly men of the cloth have reaped a large harvest from the successful expansion of the idea, and it is said by those who have investigated the matter that there are at present no fewer than three hundred gentlemen claiming near or remote connection with the various churches, who have made comfortable incomes and accumulated snug fortunes by pursuing the business of charity-faking among the business men of Chicago during the past fifteen years.

THEY MAKE A GREAT TEAM.

Lowell & Winslow Will Hitch Together On a New Enterprise.

The stock of the old Annex on South River street, has been almost entirely removed to the largest store of the Lowell Hardware Co., on the corner of Milwaukee and River streets, and before many days are passed, will be in position on the shelves in the first floor and basement. It is the intention of Alderman P. S. Winslow, who owns the Annex stock, to open a department store on a large scale, with Lowell, the hustler, as a partner to the idea. The store will be of ample size to carry out this idea to perfection and within a few days the person who wishes to buy most anything used in every day life can get it some part of this house. Every article such as the well equipped department store carries will be found at this place of business at prices that will make both Winslow and Lowell famous. Watch for further developments by these men as some surprises will be in store for bargain hunters.

Figures Taken From the Vote For Governor In 1892 and 1894 Give Republican Pluralities Varying From 482 to 2705 in The Seventeenth, and From 1453 to 3159 in The Twenty-Second—The Representation.

Madison, Feb. 26.—[Special]—By a vote of sixty eight to fifteen the assembly this morning passed the new apportionment bill. Two republicans, S. S. Jones, of Barron county and H. C. Sloan, of Superior, voted in the negative.

In the senate it has been referred to the senate judiciary committee which will report to the senate at 4 o'clock this afternoon and there is a possibility the bill may be sent to the governor tonight.

Under the new apportionment recommended by the sub-committee, the political complexion of the two senatorial districts of which Rock county is a part, is like this:

REPUBLICAN PLURALITY IN 1892 482
REPUBLICAN PLURALITY IN 1894 2705
SEVENTEENTH DISTRICT
REPUBLICAN PLURALITY IN 1892 1453
REPUBLICAN PLURALITY IN 1894 3159

No changes are made, by the proposed measure, in the assembly districts, but the senatorial districts are rearranged as follows:

The counties of Green and Lafayette and the towns of Avon, Beloit, Clinton, Newark, Plymouth, Spring Valley, Turtle, and the village of Clinton and the city of Beloit, in the county of Rock shall constitute the Seventeenth senatorial district.

Rock County Holds the Lever.

The towns of Bradford, Center, Fulton, Harmony, Janesville, Johnston, Lima, La Prairie, Magnolia, Milton, Porter, Rock and Union, and the village of Evansville and the cities of Edgerton and Janesville, in the county of Rock, and the towns of Aztalan, Jefferson, Koshkonong, Lake Mills, Milford, Oakland, Sumner and the villages of Lake Mills and Waterloo, and the cities of Fort Atkinson and Jefferson, in the county of Jefferson, shall constitute the Twenty-second senatorial district.

Rock county holds the upper hand in the twenty second district, but is in the minority in the seventeenth. The Rock county towns that are in the seventeenth cast 2,343 republican votes in 1894 while Lafayette county cast 2,570 votes and Green county 2,560. Lafayette and Green would therefore hold the balance of power in a senatorial convention.

In the twenty second or Janesville district it is the other way. The Rock county election precincts casting 3,167 republican votes in 1894 and the Jefferson county districts in 1894.

How The Vote Stood.

According to the vote of 1894, the seventeenth district will be republican by 3,159 plurality, as above stated. The districts in Rock County gave 2,014 republican plurality; Green County gave 656 plurality; and Lafayette county 489 republican plurality. Thus it will be seen that the Rock county districts are strongly republican, while Green and Lafayette counties are close, for in 1892 Green County gave but 240 republican plurality and Lafayette but 72 republican plurality, while the Rock County districts went republican by 1141 or a total of 1453 in 1892, as above stated.

The twenty second district of which the city of Janesville is a part, will, according to the vote of 1894 be republican by a plurality of 2,705. Of this plurality part of the Rock County districts gave 3,250 while other Rock County and Jefferson districts gave 545 democrats plurality. In 1892 Rock County districts gave 612 republicans and 272 democrats plurality, as a total republican plurality of 340. Jefferson County districts gave 957 democratic and 135 republican plurality or a total democratic plurality of 482.

PIONEER PREACHER CALLED BY DEATH

FORMER JANESVILLE DIVINE HAS PASSED AWAY.

Death of Rev. F. R. Marshall Who Used to Spread the Word in This City—The Demise of Mrs. Guernsey—Other Work of the Grim Reaper.

Rev. F. R. Marshall, the evangelist and Baptist minister, whom Janesville people will remember, died at his home, 770 West Monroe street, Chicago, Sunday night, from paralysis due to an injury received in a railroad accident in 1887. He had been confined to his bed for two weeks. During his long ministry he had charges in many sections of the country, from Oregon county, New York, to Sacramento, Cal. He founded numerous churches, and it is estimated that he was instrumental in the conversion of not less than 5,000 persons.

Rev. Revilo F. Marshall was born in Oswego county New York, in 1823. His father was a farmer. He received a public school education and at the age of 19 entered Madison University to take a theological course. He entered the ministry when just past his majority and became pastor of the Westford Baptist church. His subsequent charges were Sloanville, seven years; Janesville, five years; Fort Edward, five years; West Salem, five years; Carrollton, Ill., three years; Sacramento, Cal., eight months; Healdsburg and Vallejo, two years; Westford, N. Y., again, five years; and then in Wisconsin. He was seriously hurt in 1887 in an accident on the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad, which necessitated the amputation of a leg, and he then took up his residence in Chicago.

He married Amanda M. Bailey of Clarksville, N. Y., who survives him, together with two daughters, Mrs. W. W. Beatty and Mrs. A. H. Smith.

Mrs. Sarah Cooley Guernsey.

Mrs. Sarah Cooley Guernsey, who has gone out of life seen to life unseen, calls to us from the silence of her darkened home and bids us live as she has lived for justice, truth and human betterment. The older citizens of Janesville do not need to be reminded of the beauty and strength of her life. A woman indeed, whose womanhood was glorified by her motherhood; and a mother whose motherliness was not limited to her own household but seemed to embrace everyone with whom she came in contact. Devoted to all that is good and true in life she was undisturbed by any fear of death. How wise and happy she was even amid the terrible agonies by which her body was torn, is well known to all who in these last days have listened to her courageous counsels. She hath joined "the choir invisible" whose music is the gladness of the world. Her life began among the old New Hampshire hills in Elizabethtown, on April 8, 1821. At the age of seventeen she became the wife of Orin Guernsey. With their first two children they moved to Janesville in November of 1843. Her life had been saddened by the deaths of her first daughter Helen and her third son Orin and her husband, who died in September, 1876.

There remain to cherish her memory and to emulate her virtues the goodly family of seven children, Henry G. Guernsey, a merchant in S. Dakota; Dennis C. Guernsey, vice-president of the First National Bank, of Dayton, Wash.; Frank W. Guernsey, cashier of the same bank; Ellery G. Guernsey, cashier of the First National Bank, of Dubuque, Iowa; Theodore Parker Guernsey, teller in the Western and Allison bank, of Sioux City; S. D.; her daughter, Mizerva, who is the wife of Dr. Oscar King, professor of mental and nervous diseases in the college of Physicians and Surgeons, Chicago; and her daughter, May, who is the wife of Dr. G. A. Post, assistant physician of the Wisconsin State Hospital, Mendota. A multitude of friends extend to these children their warmest sympathy in this time of sorrow. And yet, who can forget that the goodness of such a life turns the hour of death into a triumph? The funeral will be held from the house at 2 o'clock and from All Souls church at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

V. E. S.

Mrs. Thomas Moffatt

Mrs. Thomas Moffatt died yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the North Bluff street home of her son, Andrew Moffatt. Mrs. Moffatt has been a patient sufferer for a number of years but during all that time was never heard to complain. She was 87 years old. The funeral will be held from the residence tomorrow morning at 10:30 o'clock, services to be conducted by Rev. R. K. Manston, of the First M. E. church.

Funeral of Frederick C. Rutter.

The funeral of Frederick Clare Rutter was held from the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Phelps Rutter, at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and from the First M. E. church at 2:30. The church choir rendered the song service, and Rev. R. K. Manston, the pastor, preached. The floral offerings were especially handsome and the sad services were largely attended.

Mrs. Jane McCubbin

Mrs. Jane McCubbin died at her home on Racine street at 10:30 o'clock last evening after an eight day's illness with bronchial pneumonia aged seventy two years. She leaves one son, Robert B. McCubbin, and a grand

The funeral will be held Friday afternoon, at 2 o'clock.

WATER WHEELS DRY WHEN MOST NEEDED

OLD ROCK RIVER IS NO LONGER RESPONSIBLE.

Cotton Company Planning to Use Steam in The Future And Edgine Agents Were Authorized to Make Specifications and Estimate As To The Changes Required.

Old Rock river is getting itself disliked because of its unsteady habits; water power is no longer to be depended upon at all seasons. All the mills have had trouble, and present indications are that the machinery of the Janesville cotton mills will before long be driven wholly by steam. A meeting of the new board of directors was held last evening at the North Franklin street office, H. L. Perrine and T. A. Gale of Chicago, representing the Corliss, the Hamilton and the Erie City engine works, attended, and were commissioned to submit specifications and to figure on the cost of such engines as would be needed if the change was made. The "upper mill" now uses a 125-horse power engine, but additional power is needed.

"Our business this year has not opened up as early as it did last season," remarked an officer of the company, "but the putting in of new engines has been talked of for some time, as the water power is not reliable."

GARIBALDI'S NERVE.

The Daring and Dramatic Method of His Entry Into Naples.

A writer who reached Naples a few days after the event, heard from the lips of the people an account of the taking of that city by Garibaldi, says the San Francisco Argonaut. The king was still there, the Neapolitan police were sullen and inactive, what the action of the military would be was not known, and upon it depended the fortune of the hour. The people turned out in a body to witness the arrival of Garibaldi. Numbers of them climbed upon the engine and cars of the slowly approaching train which bore the general and his staff to the city. Entering a carriage with Cozens, Garibaldi started, followed by three other carriages containing his officers of staff. The fortress of St. Elmo bristled with guns and gunners, and they were ordered to fire and clear the streets with grape-shot as soon as the Garibaldians were within range.

On the carriages came slowly, amid a roar of "vivas." As it approached the guns of Castello Nuovo the artillerymen, with lighted matches in their hands, pointed their guns. At that moment the voice of Garibaldi rose above the uproar, commanding: "Slower! Slower! Drive slower!" This he reiterated until the frightened coachman instinctively obeyed the man whom no one disobeyed. Then, under the very mouth of the guns, and before the gunners who were already under orders to fire, Garibaldi rose to his feet in the carriage, with one hand on breast, and looked fixedly at the artillerymen. A silence fell upon the tumultuous crowd. Those who were present declared it was as if Garibaldi magnetized them. Three times the order to fire was given, and, with his own fate and Italy's in the balance, the general stood looking upon the men. At the third order the gunners flung away their matches, threw their caps in the air and shouted: "Viva Garibaldi!" The city was taken.

ITS NAME IS NAMELESS.

How a Georgia Town Came to Get Its Queer Title.

J. R. Shepard, a prominent citizen of Nameless, Laurens county, Ga., was in the city recently and while here told how his town got its queer name, says the Macon Telegraph.

"After the postoffice authorities at Washington decided to give us a post-office," said Mr. Shepard, "the question of naming it arose. I had interested myself in getting the office and therefore it was by common consent left me to suggest a name to the authorities. Accordingly I sent on a name that I thought was a beauty, and while awaiting a reply I pictured how some day that same name would be known all over the country and that the town would grow and blossom as a rose, for I believe that there is much in a name. Finally the answer came back that, while the name I had suggested was a good one, it was too similar to another postoffice in Georgia.

"Then I put my brain to work on another name. I just knew they would accept it, but the same answer came back as before. Still another and another name was sent and each time the authorities would write back that there was either another postoffice in the state by that name or that it was so much like some other name that if it was adopted there would be confusion in the mails. At last I sat down and wrote out a list of several hundred names and told them that if they could not find one in the list to suit them the office would remain nameless, for I had suggested every name I had ever heard of. In due time the answer came back. 'Let it remain Nameless,' and ever since then it has had that name, which, while a little odd, is not such a bad name after all."

Dog Tags in Vienna.

Vienna papers have been publishing some details of the dog registration system for the past year. The municipality of Vienna has some 36,000 of numbered medallions in store, and the total income accruing from the same amounts to $65,500. As each mark costs $2-32,750 dogs pay this tax in a year. The government takes its clippings and the residue goes to the poor. But law and fashion in Vienna allow the citizen to choose his own number, if that number is free, and of course some ciphers are the favorites—13 is avoided and No. 1 is in fierce demand. It is generally bespoken years before the death of the happy hound—or his master. Other numbers coincide with houses, dates, regiments, the age of one's tailor bill, etc., and would fetch a fancy price from wealthy purchasers if the system so allowed, and it is suggested that the poor box should be enriched by this change. One popular Hofrath has two numbers, one for his own dog and one for his wife's. The first number he holds on lease, it remains fixed at 39, the other is considerably in advance and changes with the year. The first he gives as his own age, and the second as his wife's and, to the indignation of the lady, the latter is true.

A New Mineral.

A new mineral has been discovered at Allchar, in Macedonia, by Professor Krenner, who named it lorandite. It is found in short prismatic crystals, and more rarely in rhomboidal prisms. Its color varies between cochineal and cardinal red; the crystals are transparent and flexible, like those of gypsum.

Ornamenting

It recently occurred to Tiffany & Co., the New York jewelers, to ornament a bicycle elaborately with gold, silver, and precious stones, believing that some wealthy customer would esteem so handsome a mount. They preferred to pay $100 each for

'96 SPRING BLOCKS.

Our Greeting:

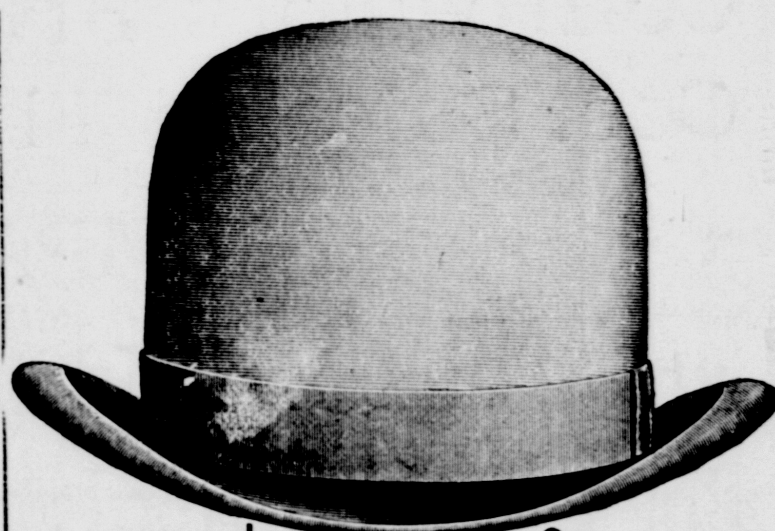

JOHN B. STETSON CO.

Miller,

SPRING, 1896.

"Have a good hat; the secret of your looks
Lives with the beaver in Canadian brooks;
Virtue may flourish in an old cravat,
But man and Nature scorn the shocking hat;
Does beauty slight you from her gay abodes?
Like bright Apollo you must take to Roads,
Mount the new castor,—ice itself will melt;
Boots, gloves may fail; the hat is always felt."
—OLIVER WINDLE HOLMES.

JOHN B. STETSON CO.

Stetson Special,

The Miller Hat

made by John B. Stetson & Co., more than fills the picture outlined by Doctor Holmes, as it is not only a good hat, but the best hat made.

The Fall Blocks

of 1895 of both the Miller and the John B. Stetson & Co's were undeniably the most tasty hats on the market and did more to set the Hat world agog than all others combined.

The Spring Blocks

for 1896 are equally as striking and are sure to be the greatest leaders on the market for the coming season.

WE ARE ALREADY SHOWING both of these celebrated hats.

IT IS NOT TOO EARLY TO BUY your hat for spring. We are able to furnish you with any of the new things.

T. J. ZEIGLER.
